

María Inés López-Ibor Alcocer

Date of birth: November 14, 1968, Madrid

Spanish ID: 00830817-B

Current positions:

- University lecturer for Psychiatry and Medical Psychology, Faculty of Medicine, Universidad Complutense de Madrid (2001).
- Special advisor for Finances and meetings of the World Psychiatric Association
- Corresponding Member of the Royal National Academy of Medicine.
- Corresponding Member of the Spanish Royal Academy of Doctors.
- President of the Juan José Lopez-Ibor Foundation.
- Member of the Board of the Ortega-Marañón Foundation.
- Director of the Editorial Board of the Spanish Journal "Actas Españolas de Psiquiatría".
- Member of the Board of the Fundación Salto for the integration of persons suffering from mental illnesses.
- Officially recognized research sections (six year terms): 3 (1998-2003, 2004-2009, 2009-2014).

Previous positions:

- Healthcare Director of the Clinica López-Ibor.
- Director, Department of Psychiatry, Universidad Complutense de Madrid.
- Deputy Minister of Health Planning, Public Health and Consumer of the Madrid Region (2003-2005).
- Associate Dean for Institutional Relations and Economic Affairs of the Faculty of Medicine of the Universidad Complutense de Madrid.
- Healthcare Director of USP Hospital Group and President of the Advisory Board of the same group (2007-2012).
- Has been a Member of the Board of the Recal Foundation for the rehabilitation and reintegration of persons suffering from drug addictions.

Education:

- Graduated in Medicine and Surgery by the Universidad Complutense de Madrid (1992).
- Doctoral Degree from the Universidad Complutense de Madrid (1994).
- Extraordinary Award of the Complutense University for the best doctoral thesis (1994) with a study on "Serotonergic Mechanisms in Obsessive-Compulsive Disorders".
- Specialist in Psychiatry (2001).
- General Management Program from the IESE Business School (Madrid): Hospital management.

Other activities:

Scientific Coordinator of the Program on Mental Health and Disasters of the World Psychiatric Association and member of the Education Committee of the World Psychiatric Association during the last eight years.

As research activity is to be highlighted the publication of more than ninety scientific papers published in national and international journals, three books and eighteen chapters in books, the direction of six doctoral theses and over ninety presentations in national and international conferences.

Participation as head researcher or co-researcher in 15 national and international projects.

She has delivered more than 120 presentations/talks at national and international congresses.

Her research and teaching activity is related to the study of mental illness and psychopathology, using neuroimaging techniques.